

CULTURAL FILM SCREENING & PANEL DISCUSSION

With Guest Speaker
American Filmmaker Paula Madison

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2015

7:00 PM (Refreshments begin at 6:30 PM)

The University of Hong Kong - CPD 3.04

Paula Madison will host the post-film discussion.

Free registration available for all students

<http://goo.gl/forms/3m1BDVMU3q>

Film summary: Three successful black siblings from Harlem discover their heritage while searching for clues about their long-lost Chinese grandfather, Samuel Lowe.

For more details visit www.findingsamuellowe.com

Organized by: Keisha Siriboe & Ruriko Otomo, Faculty of Education Student Researchers, School of Modern Languages and Cultures, African Studies Programme, American Studies Programme, and the American Society, A.A.H.K.U.S.U.

WITH SUPPORT BY THE U.S. CONSULATE
OF HONG KONG AND MACAU

The University of Hong Kong
SCHOOL OF MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES